The News.

.....The Working-men of the town of Athens, Alabama, as we learn from a letter written there on the 29th of January, and published in the Nashville Democrat, met in the Public Square on Saturday night last

and "threw thirty-three guineas for the Union

and that flag that still waves on the Courthouse, our enemies at Montgomery and Unionists everywhere notwithstanding."

They then paid a visit to Gen. Houston, who had just returned from Washington, where he had many years represented the Athens (Ala.)

District in the House.

.....A Grand Union Inauguration will be held in Washington on the night of the 4th of March. General Scott will lead the list of managers, assisted by Commodore Stewart, General Wood and other prominent officers of the army and navy. Messrs.

Crittenden, Seward, Douglas and other Senators, and distinguished citizens of each State of the thirty-four, are expected to participate in the demonstration.

.....Until some definite postal arrangement is made, letters intended for persons at or near Pensacola, should be directed to the postoffice, at Washington, Florida.

.....In the Illinois Legislature a pending

bill to appropriate the taxes levied in the city of Cairo, during the year of grace 1861,

to the building of a spacious and commodious jail within and for the Egyptian metropolis. This bill is supported on the principle that "taxation without representation is tyranny." As the bulk of the Calcareous population spend more or less of every year in jail, they naturally expect desire comfortable quarters for their money.

.....The Republicans of Ohio have, very generally, adopted the practice of determining their candidates for Postmaster by a town caucus.

.....The Washington States and Union,

of the 29th ult., says a distinguished citizen of South Carolina writes that four-fifths of the people of that State will listen to any arrangement that shall guarantee their rights and be acceptable to the other Southern States.

.....We are in the receipt of the first number of "The Confederation," a new daily paper devoted to the interests of the Union, published at Washington, D. C. The number before us is an excellent one. It is a decided improvement over the Constitution, which has until recently been Buchanan's official organ.

.....The smallpox is prevailing to an alarming extent in some sections of Philadelphia, whole families are down with it.

In some localities it is on the increase. The visitors of the poor, says the Pennsylvania

Intelligencer, declare they never knew so many cases as so much suffering.

.....Brevet Major General D. E. Twiggs,

U. S. Army, has been relieved (at his own request) from the command of the military department of Texas, which command is devolved on Col. Carlos A. Wain, 1st Infantry. It is understood that Gen. Twiggs proposes to resign.

.....The Committee of Ways and Means

have reported the following appropriations

for the next fiscal year for the support of the government:

Naval Bill.....$11,424,222.20

Army Bill.....14,855,352.67

Legislative.....1,851,865.20

Legislative.....7,076,949.46

Deficiencies.....1,292,316.88

War Department.....1,850,277.00

Postoffice.....1,064,000.00

Indian Affairs.....1,847,755.88

No bill has been reported for Fortifications, which are estimated at $854,000. The office deficiency for next year is not estimated above $1,500,000. The total of the expenditures of the fiscal year of 1862 are estimated at $15,780,255.23.

TO-NIGHT!

Working-men, Rally!!

AT THE COURTHOUSE!!!

A Convention of Working-men of the Seventh Congressional District meets TO-NIGHT at the Courthouse. All working-men are invited. By order of the Committee.

A MISERABLE DAY.—Yesterday was one of the most disagreeable days we ever experienced reportorially. It rained or drizzled almost incessantly; the mud was ankle deep everywhere, except in a few particular places; somebody had stolen our umbrella; we possessed a rent in one of our boots, and a rheumatic twinge in one of our feet; we had lost our gloves, and had neither cigars or tobacco; and on the whole were decidedly miserable—"a damp, disagreeable day."

We learn that the Jeffersonville Ferry Company intend making an extra trip during their night boat, commencing on Monday night next. The boat will leave the Jeffersonville wharf at eleven o'clock, and returning leave the Louisville wharf at eleven and a half o'clock. The Company deserve credit for this, as it is an extra trip, having no connection whatever with the arrival or departure of any railroad train. It will be a great accommodation to the public, and will afford the citizens of Jeffersonville an excellent opportunity for attending places of amusement in Louisville.

THE FIRE ON THURSDAY NIGHT.—Our figures, in the report of yesterday, were substantially correct. The only addition was the loss of Mr. Trumble, artist, who lost about $1,200 in sketches and paintings, upon which there was an insurance of only $400. He occupied rooms over Mr. Evans' store.

Remember the Daily Democrat, sent through the early morning mail, is supplied at fifty cents per month, or $5 per year. Subscriptions always in advance.

THE RAILROAD TAX.—The railroad tax collectors for the Eastern and Western Districts of the city are successful in collections. The entire sum paid over by them to the last, is about $60,000, $18,000 of which was paid over in January, but $16,000 remaining uncollected. Tax payers, by taking up their bills at once, may save a handsome per centage.

Deputy Marshal Frank Jones arrested a citizen named William McAtter yesterday, who was charged with the larceny of a watch and other articles belonging to Wm. Lowry, who is in jail on the charge of receiving stolen goods from a negro. Lowry, it seems, placed the watch and other articles in Mr. McAtter's possession voluntarily, but now alleges that they were stolen.

Messrs. Doherty & Strader have removed to No. 404 Third street, between Jefferson and Green streets. They are prepared to execute every description of business in their line, such as plumbing and gas fitting. The gentlemen composing the firm are active and intelligent master workmen, and deserving the patronage of all. See their card of removal in another column.

INFORMATION WANTED.—A BAPTIST MINISTER MISSING.—Elder Thomas P. Montgomery, Pastor of the Spring Creek Church, Tenn., took the cars on the 20th of October last for Nashville, professing to exchange a portion of his library for books that would more rapidly sell. Since that date nothing has been heard of him. His name stands registered at the St. Cloud Hotel, to be called at 4 o'clock for the Chattanooga train.

He had but recently recovered from a severe sickness that affected his brain, and added to this the loss of his only child greatly affected him. His physician believed that he was probably insane when he left. If information can be obtained address Mrs. Montgomery, Pea Ridge, Tenn.

The woman who picked up a lady's white Swiss embroidered cap, on Wednesday, at the terminus of the Portland railroad, would confer a favor upon the owner by leaving it at the Democrat's office.

HOLMAN JUVENILE OPERA TROUPE.—This extraordinary family will begin their series of performances at Mozart Hall next Monday with a capital programme, which is published in our amusement column.

THEATRE.—The benefit of the sisters Webb drew out an excellent house, considering the unfavorable weather. The inevitable Prince is one of the most amusing of extravaganzas. Both sisters appeared to advantage in it. Miss Ada, between the pieces, sang the Union song, which was received as before with the most tumultuous applause—a good test of the popular sentiment of the city. The Webb sisters make their last appearance to-night in the musical burlesque of Beauty and the Beast, and the protean force of the Four Sisters. We wish them a crowded house on their final appearance this evening.

Miss Jenny High contributed greatly to the success of the evening's entertainment. She does not often delight us with the music of her voice, and it is only recently that we have discovered that she possesses the double talent of actress and dancer.

On Monday, Bourciaud's great drama of Colleen Bawn will be introduced to the Louisville public. We have no reason to doubt that it will meet with the same extraordinary success here as elsewhere.

CITY COURT.—The following cases were before Judge Johnson yesterday: John Ryan, drunk and disorderly; bail in $100 for three months. E. H. Sale, drunk and disorderly; bail in $200 for three months. John McAtter, larceny; continued until Thursday next. C. F. Harder, having burglar's tools in his possession; discharged. The Grand Jury of the City Court returned indictments against the following persons, charged with violating ordinances: W. W. Owen, James Gilber, James McElvogue, Jane Schuster, John Shadine, George Caruthers and others. J. H. Keller, Henry Stuck and D. Winchman, James Lawson and James and John Doyle. The jury was then discharged.

Henry Self and Wm. Burns, charged with breaking into Mr. Mill's drug store, on the corner of Fifth and Jefferson streets, on Wednesday night, were arrested yesterday by Officers Seay and Heaton.

Mr. Samuel Orr, of Evansville, shipped $1,500 worth of pork on Monday to a gentleman in Georgia. The order was accompanied by the cash.

For the month of January there were only fifteen marriage licenses issued by the County Clerk, at New Albany, there being a decrease of sixteen compared with the month previous.

We, by some means, for which we cannot account, did not receive our Frankfort correspondent's letter last night.
